FALL DELIGHT CONTINUES AT THE POCATELLO ZOO
Halloween Fun and Color Continues through Halloween Weekend!

If you missed ZooBoo last weekend, do not fret! Due to the marvelous weather, Halloween decorations are being left up at the Pocatello Zoo through October 30, 2011! Come and enjoy the Zoo animals, which are now in their winter attire and feeling frisky, and see the lovely trees and bushes, which have turned to vivid gold, red and yellow! Zookeepers will also be giving away some candy to the little ones who stop by and visit.

Cost for admission to the Zoo is the following:

- $4.75 for adults, 12-59
- $2.75 for youth, 3-11
- $3.50 for seniors, 60+
- Free for children under 2, as well as Pocatello Zoological Society Members

While this is the last weekend of the year for the Pocatello Zoo to remain open to the public, the Zoo will continue to offer tours for school groups, outreach programs, ZooSnooZzzz Programs and Birthday Bearnanza Programs on a reservation basis. And don't forget to drive past to enjoy the Zoo Lights starting November 28, 2011 through January 1, 2012!

For more information, call the Zoo at 234-6264, check out our website at www.pocatellozoo.org, or search for Pocatello Zoo on Facebook.
